

MAKING LIFE BETTER TOGETHER

We are Ingersoll Rand Businesses

As our businesses continue to grow and thrive as part of Ingersoll Rand, our brands are evolving. Today, we want to highlight the collective strength in the Ingersoll Rand portfolio as well as the long legacy of these individual, gold-standard brands.

Benefiting from over 160 years of experience, which comes from serving 100,000 customers across 50 countries, being “an Ingersoll Rand business” brings unparalleled value to our customers and markets.

These industry-leading brands provide the most innovative solutions in dosing, transfer of high-value fluids and gases, and agriculture technology solutions. They also deliver significant sustainability impact to clean energy, water, food, as well as human and animal health, that makes life better for our society and planet.

MAXIMUS is proud to be an Ingersoll Rand business.
